Providence's Mission Statement: Our Lady of Providence Inspires Faith, Empowers Hope, strengthens Love and the formation of the Whole Person, through Exemplary Catholic Education.

Providence High School is an Inter-parochial co-educational secondary school established to serve the parishes of the New Albany Deanery, a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence, Indiana Department of Education Four Star School, located in Southern Indiana, between New Albany and Jeffersonville, just north of Louisville, Kentucky.

Providence High School has a student population of 421 students (grades 9-12) offering 18 varsity sports plus cheerleading and dance teams. Our Four-Star academic rating reflects our commitment to academics as well as athletics.

The leader we are searching for must be a person of exemplary morals and ethical principals who will support and nurture the high scholastic and Catholic philosophies of our school, Archdiocese and Providence family. This person must also maintain our basketball program with a constant awareness of upgrading at all times, and working closely with our Deanery Basketball Programs.
