

Summer Reading 2019

Sophomore Theology

1. All students are required to read:
The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis
2. During your reading, you will complete a double-entry journal for each of the chapters (see directions).

Directions:

1. Journal entries should be neatly handwritten.
2. Each entry should be completed on one sheet of paper, and once completed, stapled together (You will have 16 sheets of paper)
3. Each double-entry journal requires three parts:
 - a. Title each entry with your name, the chapter title and number.
 - b. Choose ONE passage that you find significant, interesting, puzzling and/or compelling. Write it out with quotation marks around it. Include the page number(s) from the chapter.
 - c. Write your reactions to the passage. Reactions could include comments, ideas, objections, feelings, parallels to Scripture, connections to what you have already learned, etc. NOTE: A summary of the passage DOES NOT count as a reaction.

A PASSAGE CAN BE A PARAGRAPH OR SEVERAL SENTENCES. TRY TO FOCUS ON SHORTER PASSAGES AND NOT AN ENTIRE CHAPTER. YOU CAN EXPLAIN THE CONTEXT AND THEN WRITE YOUR REACTION BASED ON THE ABOVE. Always put quotation marks around the text you have pulled.

Due Date: All journal entries will be due on the second day of class.
